Our ref. ELM17-A00009

Dear Dr Ruiz-de-Adana,

We are pleased to inform you that the following e-learning activity

Emergencies after bariatric surgery: Key points for physicians on duty

made available on

<http://www.e-bariatric.com/>

is accredited by the European Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (EACCME).

The credits for the users of the module will be 1 European CME credit (ECMEC®) for every hour (60 minutes of actual e-learning excluding introductions etc.) of use, provided that the users have completed a module and have passed the relevant assessment.

This e-learning activity will be made available on the UEMS-EACCME homepage (<https://eaccme.uems.eu>).

The European Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (EACCME) was set up by the UEMS for the purpose of ensuring the international mutual recognition of quality assessments of CME-CPD activities organised all over the world for the benefit of European doctors.

Accreditation Validity

EACCME accreditation begins on the day of today. Term of approval is for 2 years from this date.

Accreditation Statement

Accreditation by the EACCME confers the right to place the following statement in all communication materials including the registration website, the event programme and the certificate of attendance. The following statements must be used without revision:

The Emergencies after bariatric surgery: Key points for physicians on duty, made available on <http://www.e-bariatric.com/> and organized by Spanish Society for the Surgery of Obesity and Metabolic Disorders SECO, is accredited by the European Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (EACCME) to provide the following CME activity for medical specialists.

Each medical specialist should claim only those credits that he/she actually spent in the educational activity. The EACCME is an institution of the European Union of Medical Specialists (UEMS). Only those e-learning materials that are displayed on the UEMS-EACCME website have formally been accredited.

Through an agreement between the European Union of Medical Specialists (UEMS) and the American Medical Association (AMA), physicians may convert EACCME credits to an equivalent number of AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™.

Information on the process to convert EACCME credit to AMA credit can be found at www.ama-assn.org/go/internationalcme.

EACCME credits

Each medical specialist should claim only those hours of credit that he/she actually spent in the educational activity.

The delivery of the certificate of attendance is linked to the completion of an evaluation form and self-evaluation test. The CME provider must define the criteria for passing the test.

Logo

The UEMS – EACCME logo is a service mark of the European Union of Medical Specialists – European Accreditation Council for CME. This service mark may be used publicly only with the permission of the UEMS – EACCME.

The logo may only be used in conjunction with, and in proximity to, the EACCME accreditation statement.

The logo cannot be used in notices, advertising, or promotion of activities other than in association with the EACCME accreditation statement.

Feedback report

Organisers are requested to provide a feedback report within twelve months of accreditation being granted.

Yoursincerely,

The UEMS-EACCME Secretariat
